New additions in traditional villages for Peak Retreats 2021/22 winter programme

Award-winning French Alps specialist, Peak Retreats, has added brand-new self-catered accommodation in popular authentic village resorts including Samoëns, Val Cenis, Morzine and Vaujany as well as Les Deux Alpes to its winter 2021/22 programme. Peak Retreats can also now offer a private chef service in selected self-catered chalets.

Samoëns: The newly built self-catered apartments at the Pré d'Anne Chloé open in 2021. The residence offers 9 modern apartments, the largest of which has four bedrooms. Le Pré d'Anne Chloé is located in the Moulins area of Samoëns, an eight-minute walk from the village centre. Facilities include a balcony/terrace, ski lockers, parking and WiFi, and the ski bus to the slopes stops nearby.

Val Cenis: The high-end, Les Balcons Platinum apartments, opening for February 2022 are close to the slopes in the traditional village of Lanslevillard, one of two villages that make up Val Cenis. Built in a traditional local style with stone and timber, the property is made up of 25 modern, apartments decorated in a warm, welcoming style. The largest apartment has seven bedrooms. Guests have access to a swimming pool, hot tub, steam room and sauna. Spa treatments can also be booked.

Morzine: The brand-new traditional chalet-style apartments at, Les 3 Sophies are opening for the 2021/22 season. They feature natural interiors in harmony with the beautiful views of the mountains. Situated in the Portes du Soleil ski area, Les 3 Sophies is in a perfect location for the Prodains cable car that takes you up to Avoriaz.

Vaujany: Opening in December 2021, Les Edelweiss offers spacious south facing, chalet-style apartments. This stylish new residence boasts a hot tub, sauna and steam room. In a good location for the slopes, shops, restaurants and activities in the resort, it's a great addition to the Peak Retreats programme in popular, family-friendly Vaujany.

Les Deux Alpes: The 4-star Les Clarines is found in the heart of the Clarines district of Les Deux Alpes. Near to the slopes and lift on the Vallée Blanche side, with bars, restaurants, and shops a short five min walk away. Facilities include; indoor/outdoor pool, wellness area & spa, restaurant, covered parking, ski room, childcare and kids' clubs, as well as daily entertainment.

Private chef service: Peak Retreats now offers a private chef service at selected self-catered chalets including the luxury four-star, Chalet Arnica and Chalet Fontany in Samoëns. Guests are able to sit back and enjoy the fully-catered experience; French and Savoyard inspired cuisine and classics from breakfast to delicious three-course evening meals using fresh, locally sourced ingredients all in the comfort of their accommodation.

For those new to self-catering, Peak Retreats resort food delivery service is another way to make self-catering easy. Ready-to-cook meals can be delivered to your apartment on your arrival. Enjoy hearty Savoyard dishes and crowd-pleasing French classics.
