Peak Retreats adds new properties in popular resorts in the French Alps for 2017/18 ski season

Peak Retreats (www.peakretreats.co.uk; 0844 576 0170) has added new properties to its programme ahead of the 17/18 ski season. Properties in Samoens, Chamonix, St Martin de Belleville, Le Grand Bornand and Vaujany have all been announced.

The French Alps specialist has added a brand new all-inclusive hotel in Samoens for 2017/18 (opening December 2017) having introduced all-inclusive ski holidays to its programme last season, to complement its range of self-catered apartments. The new hotel is right on the slopes. Built with families in mind, it's located by the beginners' area and includes a full range of kids' clubs, a family area in the main restaurant and a dedicated kid's area in the ski room. 7 nights from £1480pp includes all gourmet meals (breakfast, lunch and dinner), snacks, alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks, a 6-day ski pass, ski lessons, kids' clubs and entertainment.

In Vaujany, Peak Retreats now offers a unique property comprised of three chalet apartments. These can be rented together and opened up via interconnecting doors, offering a large chalet sleeping up to 18. 4* Chalet Gilbert, Chalet des Carson and Le Petit Refuge were completely refurbished in 2016 to provide a very high standard of comfort and flexible, spacious living accommodation. The building enjoys an ideal, quiet location, in the lower part of the Vaujany, very close to the Town Hall and just 150m from the cable car. 7 nights for all three interconnecting chalets from £179pp, including a standard Eurotunnel crossing with free FlexiPlus upgrade (Sun-Sun dates only, based on arriving 7/1/18).
